

React Rally in CYBERSPACE

August 14, 2020

React Rally is a community conference about React and topics interesting to React developers. We focus on a friendly, welcoming atmosphere, engaging talks from new and established speakers, and plenty of hallway-track time to chat with interesting people.

Atmosphere of the Conference

React Rally is a community conference, and we still want it to feel that way! We have always had a casual and relaxed atmosphere, focusing on the interaction between speakers and attendees. This year may be different, but we are confident we can obtain these objectives. We will continue our tradition of having several breaks and activities throughout the day and opportunities for people to “meet” and discuss what they learn.

The Organizers

React Rally is put on by Matt Zabriskie (@mzabriskie) and Jamison Dance (@jergason).

Matt is a well known open-source developer and a long-time community organizer. He started the AngularJS Utah meet-up and runs the React Utah, and UtahJS meetups.

Jamison is an active speaker, organizer, and podcaster. He co-hosts the JavaScript Jabber and Soft Skills Engineering podcasts, runs the UtahJS and Utah Elm Users meet-ups and is an avid conference speaker.

No material or merchandise containing illegal subject matter, racially or ethically discourteous content or depict nudity or sexual conduct of any kind (e.g., promotional condoms), may be sold, given, or distributed in any way. Offensive materials are determined at the sole discretion of React Rally. Non-compliance may result in the removal of offensive material or expulsion from the conference with no refund of fees. If you are unsure whether your material violates this provision, please contact us BEFORE the event.

4.2 Except as required by law, neither React Rally nor its affiliates shall be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential costs, damages, or losses arising directly or indirectly from the Event or any other aspect related thereto or in connection with this Agreement.

4.3 The maximum aggregate liability of React Rally for any claim in any way connected with, or arising from, the Event or this Agreement, whether in contract, tort or otherwise (including any negligent act or omission), shall be limited to the amount paid by you to React Rally under this Agreement to be an Exhibitor/Sponsor for the Event.

5.2 Exhibitor/Sponsor will not enter into any settlement that adversely affects React Rally's rights or interests without the prior written consent of React Rally.
